Armstrong promoted at ELPO Law

By the Daily News Jun 26, 2019

Travis Armstrong

English, Lucas, Priest & Owsley, LLP announced that Firm Administrator Travis Armstrong has been promoted to chief operating officer.

Armstrong, a graduate of Western Kentucky University, became a certified public accountant in 1995 and a certified legal manager in 2007. Prior to being hired as the firm administrator at ELPO Law in 2005, Armstrong served as the vice president of operations and chief financial officer for Employers Risk Services and as audit supervisor for Holland CPAs, which provided him with broad experience in all areas of accounting, finance, human resources and operations management.

Armstrong is a member of the Kentucky Society of CPAs and has served previously as president, president-elect, vice president and treasurer for the Middle Tennessee chapter of the Association of Legal Administrators. He has been active in United Way of Southern Kentucky, the Family Enrichment Center and Bowling Green Christian Church. He is a graduate of Leadership Bowling Green.

Bob Young, managing partner for ELPO Law, said in a news release that “Travis has been an integral part of ELPO Law for many years. He brings a skill set that will allow him to perform many functions, including overseeing our day-to-day operations. We are very fortunate to have Travis as part of the ELPO team.”
