Allie Sharp, president of the local JA office, said Duvall, director of student success at the Gordon Ford College of Business at Western Kentucky University, “helps southcentral Kentucky’s JA students get the knowledge and skills they need to own their economic success, plan for their future, and make smart academic and economic choices.”

Duvall has served on the local JA board for 11 years. She has served as events chair, secretary, board development chair and board chair.

Junior Achievement’s entrepreneurship, financial literacy and work readiness programs are delivered nationwide in classrooms by volunteer role models from the business community.
