NUMBER: 1.1212

DIVISION: Academic Affairs

TITLE: Part-Time Employment of Emeritus Faculty in a Teaching Capacity

DATE: July 19, 2005

REVISED: September 30, 2013, March 7, 2022

REVIEWED: November 1, 2015

AUTHORIZED BY: Robert Fischer, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

I. Purpose and Scope

Western Kentucky University formally recognizes retired faculty members who have given long and dedicated service to the university through appointment to emeritus status. These emeriti faculty members may be available to teach a class for the university, including during the summer and winter sessions.

II. Policy

If an academic department wishes to employ an emeritus faculty member in a teaching capacity during any academic semester or session, the compensation rate will be the same as the standard summer/winter session rate for full-time faculty (see Policy 1.212V) that is in effect on the date of this policy.

III. Related Policies

1.212V Summer Sessions and Winter Term Compensation and Distribution

V. Reason for Revision

September 2013

Revised to clarify that the policy is intended to cover teaching duties carried out during any term, and to clarify the rate of compensation for such duties.

November 2015

Reviewed as part of the fifth-year review in accordance with Policy 0.000V.

March 2022

Non-substantive revisions as a result of the fifth-year review in accordance with Policy 0.000V.
