E-mail: tim.brotherton@wku.edu		Term: Fall 2006
Course Description: This course is for those students who are considering the military profession and obtaining an Army Commission. It will prepare a cadet to become an effective small unit leader.
Course Objectives: The main objectives of this course follow the five BOLC tracks:
--LEADERSHIP: (Attributes, Skills, and Actions) using the Adaptive Team Leading Model
--PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT: Character development, Flexibility & Adaptability, Physical Fitness, and Interpersonal skills
--VALUES & ETHICS: The Army Values, the Warrior Ethos & Soldier's Creed, Professional development, the Ethical decision making model, and Army Problem solving
--OFFICERSHIP: Military Heritage, Military History, the Traditions (& Customs) of the Service, Management and Administration of Army programs
--TACTICS & TECHNIQUES: Including Squad Tactics, Battle Drills, Operations, Preparing OpOrders, Troop Leading Process, Mission Analysis, Land Navigation, and Decision Making
Textbooks: All textbooks and course material or equipment will be provided by the department.
Attendance and Assignments: Regular class attendance is required to master the material in the class. Any unexcused absence will result in points being deducted from final grade. Cadets are expected to read and study any homework assigned by the instructor or in the syllabus. Each cadet will be involved as primary instructor or as a team member for selected training assignments as a graded event
Mandatory Events:
Leadership Labs: All MS-III cadets attend the 2-hour Thursday leadership labs (in BDUs).
Color Guard: All contracted / scholarship cadets will be scheduled to participate in the color guard. The schedule will be posted by the battalion chain of command.
Counseling: I will counsel each cadet at least twice a semester; and cadets should update their 104R and academic degree completion plan at that time.

Mandatory Training: Contracted and scholarship cadets are required to attend: 1) the Field Training Exercise (FTX), 2) the Social event, 3) and the Land Navigation training.

Physical Training: Physical Readiness training is conducted three (3) times per week, on Mon / Thur from 0645-0800. Contracted or scholarship cadets are expected to attend (and lead as assigned) PT training and one point will be taken from final grade for every unexcused absence.

Uniform: Physical Fitness Training will be conducted in the Army Physical Training Uniform. Military Leadership Labs will consist of the Battle Dress Uniform and other TA-50 Equipment as directed by event.

Course Weight:

APFT	10 points
Midterm	25 points
Leadership Evals	10 points
Class assignments	30 points
Final Exam	25 points

The following is the point breakdown for each letter grade:

Total Points Earned	Grade
