

Agenda

FBI Counterintelligence Strategic Partnership Program

Academic Alliance

September 14, 2011

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| 9:30 - 10:00 a.m. | Registration – Please provide contact information |
| 10:00 – 10:30 a.m. | Welcome Remarks

FBI Special Agent in Charge Elizabeth A. Fries

U of L Interim Executive VP for Research Dr. William M. Pierce, Jr. |
| 10:30 – 10:45 a.m. | Academic Alliance

FBI Special Agent/Strategic Partnership Program

Coordinator Jim McGuire will briefly describe the Academic Alliance Program and how it can help protect and benefit your university. The overall theme of the conference is “forewarned is forearmed” |
| 10:45 – 11:45 a.m. | Academia and Government Cooperation (J. Reece Roth Case)

Assistant United States Attorney Will Mackie will discuss lessons learned in the J. Reece Roth case, affecting the University of Tennessee and how it can offer simple solutions in avoiding violations of U.S. Export laws and becoming victims of foreign companies and governments |
| 11:45 – 12:15 p.m. | Break for lunch - buffet |
| 12:15 – 1:00 p.m. | Cyber Trends and Campus Threats

Special Agent Adam Keown will discuss the most recent threats to university research and security over the Internet and how best to avoid them |

1:00 - 2:00 p.m.

Case Briefing – Shriver Case

Special Agent Tom Barlow will discuss the Glenn Duffie Shriver case in which Shriver was identified and recruited by the Chinese intelligence service while in college and specifically targeted toward employment with U.S. Government intelligence agencies

2:00 - 2:30 p.m.

General University Compliance/Export

William A. Metcalf & Robin Wilcox will present practical information concerning export compliance issues that affect all universities

2:30 - 3:45 p.m.

International Travel/International Students

Special Agents Jim McGuire and Kimberly Kidd will provide useful information concerning the threats that target university students and faculty whenever they travel outside of the U.S. They will also present information concerning threats that may target your International students and what the FBI can do to help mitigate them

3:45 - 4:00 p.m.

Panel Questions and Answers

This is your opportunity to follow-up on whatever issues you observed throughout the previous presentations

4:00 p.m.

Closing Comments