Program Description

The major in Chinese with Teacher Certification Program leads to initial certification. Courses for the major are taught using methods described in Characteristics of Highly Effective World Language Teaching and Learning, outlined by the Kentucky Department of Education. When students take the content courses such as Chinese 333, their language proficiency is assessed using a rubric that addresses the ACTFL standards. Thus, the program regularly evaluates students to insure that they are on track to reach the minimum level of Advanced-Low as defined in the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines – Speaking (1999). Although the program emphasizes preparation for teaching in middle and secondary schools, the following core courses include components that help prepare candidates for teaching language to elementary school students: EDU 250, PSY 310, EXED 330, and EDU 489.
