Individual award winners are, (from left), Avery Wells, John Rains, Ethan Huffaker and James Crider.

The Western Kentucky University Mock Trial team began their 2024-25 season this past weekend at the Ole Miss Chucky Mullins competition in Oxford, Mississippi, which was an SEC tournament.

Four students received individual awards for their outstanding performance and the team placed 4th place out of 14 colleges from across the United States following a two-day competition.

They will travel to Vanderbilt November 2-3 for their next competition.
